Eligibility

- Applicants must be a Girl Scout or Boy Scout who will graduate high school/secondary school in Spring 2018‡.
- Applicant must be planning to attend a college, university, or trade/vocational school prior to the end of the 2018 calendar year.
- Applicant must have earned a Girl Scout Gold Award or Boy Scout Eagle Award.
- Applicant cannot be the immediate family member or same household member of an employee, officer or director of Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. or the Multiple Listing Service of Long Island, Inc.

‡Award of scholarship is made contingent upon intended recipient/applicant furnishing Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. with satisfactory proof of 2018 high school/secondary school graduation; e.g., final transcript. If such proof is not supplied upon request or if it is deemed to be inadequate in any regard by Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. in its sole discretion, Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. will NOT issue scholarship to such intended recipient/applicant and will have NO liability to such intended recipient/applicant.

Application Requirements

- Fill out all blanks on the Realtor® Scouting Scholarship Award application.
- Type or print legibly in black ink.
- Submit a letter of recommendation from Scoutmaster, Crew leader or Team leader. Recommendation must include a discussion of activities relating to applicant's receipt of Girl Scout Gold Award or Boy Scout Eagle Award.
- Submit a minimum of one additional letter of recommendation from a person who is not related to you other than Scoutmaster, Crew leader or Team leader endorsing you as a candidate for receipt of scholarship. By way of example, a teacher can provide this recommendation.
 - On a separate piece of paper, write an essay (English only; no minimum or maximum length) on the following topic: What HOME means to me. Essay must be entirely the original work product of applicant; third party assistance of any kind (e.g., from parent/guardian or teacher) is strictly prohibited.

Scholarship: Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. will make tuition payment in conjunction with recipient's enrollment on a full-time or part-time basis for classes toward an undergraduate or like degree. Tuition payment will be made by Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. either directly to college/university/trade/vocational school or the recipient. Recipient agrees to provide necessary consents and information upon Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc.'s request, so as to facilitate such tuition payment as well as all associated reporting and recordkeeping obligations of Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. in conjunction therewith. Recipient must be enrolled in a college, university, or trade/vocational school prior to December 31, 2018. Should recipient fail to do so, Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. shall NOT have any liability to recipient under any legal theory. If, for any reason, Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. determines that it is not appropriate to award all six (6) scholarships, Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. may refrain from awarding scholarship(s) without liability of any kind.

Release of Liability: Applicant (if a minor, his/her parent or guardian) indemnifies, releases and agrees to hold harmless Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc., its parent company, affiliates and subsidiaries, and the directors, officers, agents, representatives, shareholders, employees, successors and assigns of any of the above organizations, from any and all liability arising from submitting an application and/or acceptance, receipt, possession or use/misuse of the scholarship (if applicable).

Additional Conditions: Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. will make all decisions relative to award of scholarship(s) in its sole discretion, with such decisions being final and binding and not subject to appeal. Applicant is solely responsible for any and all costs/expenses associated with application process. Recipient is solely responsible for any and all costs/expenses associated with acceptance and use of scholarship, including any and all applicable taxes in conjunction with scholarship. Any misrepresentation, false statement or other attempt to defraud Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. in conjunction with application voids application and Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. will have no liability under any legal theory; in such event, Long Island Board of Realtors®, Inc. further reserves the right to seek legal remedies so as to protect its rights. Each application will include basic information about yourself, your school, your Scouting experience, and your community involvement. Applications must be submitted via mail or fax only. Online applications are not available.
